Elder Guardians are mysterious beings descended from the lost civilizations of the past, and have the power to mold a child's future by voicing their desires with "moments". Their existence is slowly being erased by the recent events that have changed the world. By unlocking the memories of other lost civilizations, the Elder Guardians have the ability to manipulate the flow of time, and have found the runes that can be used to enhance this power. The "Lands Between" are a world that stands between the Elden world of the past and the outworld, where arcane warriors and magic practitioners make their homes. By channeling the power of the runes and fulfilling the wishes of the Elder Guardians, you can create new runes that open up the possibility for the people of the Lands Between to make a new beginning.
